Based on review of current research, the Division has determined that Calmare / Scrambler therapy be considered investigational and not medically necessary. Any requests for use by a provider will be considered investigational and according to the Wyoming Workers' Compensation Rules & Regulations, Chapter 10, Section 19, (the provider) ...will submit to the Division a comprehensive review of the medical literature. This review will include at least two good prospective, randomized, placebo-controlled, double-blind trials.
