Topic: Cervical Traction Devices as DME

Published by Wyoming Workers' Compensation Medical Case Management Unit

October 19, 2016

Based on the review of the current literature, cervical traction devices will not be authorized by the Division based on the Wyoming Workers' Compensation Rules & Regulations, Chapter 1, Section 4. (al) Medically Necessary. "Medically necessary treatment" means those health services for a compensable injury that are reasonable and necessary for the diagnosis and cure or significant relief of a condition consistent with any applicable treatment parameter.

Effective Date: December 1, 2016
