
WHEREAS, the Workmen's Compensation Act of the State of Montana authorizes the Industrial Accident Board to enter into agreements of reciprocity for workmen's compensation purposes with other states, and

WHEREAS, the Workmen's Compensation Law of the State of Wyoming authorizes the Workmen's Compensation Department to enter into agreements of reciprocity for workmen's compensation purposes with other states, and

WHEREAS, employers who conduct operations in the State of Montana are required on occasion to have Montana workmen perform services in the State of Wyoming, and

WHEREAS, employers who conduct operations in the State of Wyoming are required on occasion to have Wyoming workmen perform services in the State of Montana, and

WHEREAS, the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana and the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming are desirous of entering into an agreement whereby the employers and workmen of each of the respective states may continue to be entitled to the protection and benefits provided by the Workmen's Compensation Laws of their respective home states,

IT IS HEREBY AGREED that for the purpose of this agreement of reciprocity, a Montana workman is a person hired to work in the State of Montana, and a Wyoming workman is a person hired to work in the State of Wyoming.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED BETWEEN the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana and the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming:

That the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana in keeping with the provisions of the Montana Workmen's Compensation Act will provide protection for any Montana employer under its jurisdiction and benefits to any of his Montana workmen who may be injured in the course of employment while working temporarily in the State of Wyoming.

IN THE EVENT OF INJURY TO ONE OF THESE WORKMEN IN THE STATE OF WYOMING... workmen, his exclusive remedy would be that provided by the Workmen's Compensation Act of the State of Wyoming.

That the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming in keeping with the provisions of the Wyoming Workmen's Compensation Law will provide protection for any Wyoming employer under its jurisdiction, and benefits to any of his Wyoming workmen who may be injured in the course of employment while working temporarily in the State of Montana. In the event of injury to one of these workmen, his exclusive remedy would be that provided by the Workmen's Compensation Law of the State of Wyoming.

That for the purpose of this agreement, "temporary" shall mean a period not to exceed six months.

That the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana will upon request and on behalf of the Montana employer issue a certificate of extraterritorial coverage to the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming, and that the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming will upon request and on behalf of the Wyoming employer issue a certificate of extraterritorial coverage to the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana.

That these certificates of extraterritorial coverage shall be issued, or cancelled, at the discretion of the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana or the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming.

That these certificates of extraterritorial coverage shall be issued for a maximum period of six months subject to renewal upon request by the affected employers and at the discretion of the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Montana or the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming.

That the Wyoming employer while performing work in the State of Montana will be subject to the safety codes of the State of Montana, and that the Montana employer while performing work in the State of Wyoming will be subject to the safety codes of the State of Wyoming.

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD that this agreement will not apply to Wyoming workmen of the Montana employer working in the State of Wyoming, nor to the Montana workmen of the Wyoming employer working in the State of Montana.

IT IS ALSO MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD that premium payments on the out-of-state earnings of Montana workmen will be made to the proper Montana agency or insurance carrier, and that premium payments on the out-of-state earnings of Wyoming workmen will be made to the Workmen's Compensation Department of the State of Wyoming.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED that this agreement of extraterritorial reciprocity shall become effective on July 1, 1968, and further that this agreement shall remain in full force and effect until superseded or modified by the parties to this agreement.
